Ballet petite™

Website: All current information is posted on www.balletpetite.com.

Email: All information including Registration Packets, Newsletters, Priority Registration Notifications, and Recital Information will be sent via email only. Upon registering, please provide us with an email address where you would like this information sent.

Make-Up Classes (New for 2011-2012): Make-ups may be scheduled at any point AFTER a regular class has been missed. Please call 24 hours in advance to schedule your make up class to ensure availability. No make-ups are permitted without a prior appointment. Students may take any genre for a make-up class but must meet the age requirements. No make-ups are permitted during Observation Week or Bring a Friend Week. Make-ups must be scheduled during the same session as the missed class. Three make-ups are allowed for Fall session and two for Winter and Spring sessions. No refunds will be offered for missed or unattended classes.

Inclement Weather/Emergency Closings: Please check wtop.com for weather updates.

Weekday: We follow the public school guidelines in the county where your child's class is held.

Weekend: Check our website, balletpetite.com, for cancellation information.

In case of extraordinary weather conditions, an independent decision may be made by the end of each session to determine additional make-ups.

Withdrawal From Session Class Registrations:

Refund: $75 withdrawal fee plus the cost of any classes that have occurred up until the date of your request.

Credit to your Ballet Petite account: $20 withdrawal fee plus the cost of any classes that have occurred up until the date of your request. Credit can be used for classes, camps, Petite Parties, or in the boutique. No refunds will be given for this credit.

Withdrawal From VIP Full Year Class Registrations:

Refund: None offered.

Credit to your Ballet Petite account: $75 withdrawal fee plus the cost of any classes that have occurred up until the date of your request. Credit can be used for classes, camps, Petite Parties, or in the boutique. No refunds will be given for this credit.

Class Change Option: Students may switch to another age-appropriate class at any point during the semester if there is availability. The first switch is free of charge. Any switch beyond the first incurs a $20 administrative fee.
