The Country Bunny and the Little Gold Shoes by Du Bose Heyward

The Golden Egg by Margaret Wise Brown

This is the kind of story little ones adore. The story of a young bunny fascinated by a beautiful blue egg. He tries everything he can to crack the egg open, but it is not until he falls asleep that the egg begins to crack. The best story for children in welcoming the spring!

Guess How Much I Love You by Sam McBratney

It's Little Nutbrown Hare's bedtime, and he wants to make sure Big knows how much he's loved, and vice versa! Soon Little is no longer awake and we discover the sweetness that comes with a sleeping child showing how big their love is. This story will touch your child's heart.

My Garden of Flower Fairies by Cicely Mary Barker

The illustrations of Cicely Mary Barker express the jubilant celebration of the thrill of springtime. There's Marigold, who loves the sun, shy Daffodil, and Poppy who likes to give parties for the Flower Fairy children. Visit the garden where the Flower Fairies and their friends live.

A Tale for Easter by Tasha Tudor
